International Artificial Intelligence, Embedded Systems, and Renewable Energy Conference

The AIESRE'2025 international conference aims to bridge the gap between academia and industry by showcasing the latest innovations in renewable energy, energy storage, green computing, AI, embedded systems, and sustainable development, with a focus on Algeria. The conference will explore key renewable energy sources (solar, wind, hydropower, biomass, geothermal), energy storage solutions, smart grids, and decentralized energy systems, particularly relevant for energy transition and rural areas. It will also address challenges such as energy intermittency and discuss how technologies like AI, real-time monitoring, and smart grids can improve energy resilience and efficiency.

Submission

All submitted papers will undergo a double blind review, evaluated based on the following criteria: originality and novelty, technical quality, relevance and significance, clarity and presentation, impact and practical applications, methodological rigor, ethical standards and integrity, and language and grammar. Submissions must also avoid AI-generated content and plagiarism.

Submitted papers must be written in English, in accordance with IEEE conference paper template, and limited to six (6) pages, two columns. Manuscripts should be original and not published or under review elsewhere. Submissions must be made via CMT, and an account is required to submit.

Accepted papers will be submitted for inclusion in IEEE Xplore, but inclusion is not guaranteed and is subject to meeting IEEE Xplore's scope and quality requirements
